1. Introduction

Adhiyamaan College of Engineering (Autonomous)(ACE), Hosur, believes that student success extends beyond academic achievement and includes personal growth, professional development, emotional well-being, ethical values, leadership skills, and lifelong learning. Recognizing the diverse academic, social and career aspirations of students, the institution has established a structured Mentor–Mentee Programme to provide continuous guidance, support and encouragement throughout their academic journey.

The Mentor–Mentee Programme serves as a proactive mechanism to identify students' strengths, address academic and personal challenges, improve learning outcomes, enhance employability, and foster holistic development. CONSOLIDATED MENTOR-MENTEE REPORT

Department	Electrical and Electronics Engineering	Mentees per Mentor	15 Students
Mentoring Frequency	Once every month	Counselling Mode	Individual One-to-One
Primary Focus	Academic Progress & Personal Motivation	Monitoring	Attendance, Arrears & Academic Progress
Academic Year	2025–2026	Report Type	Consolidated Mentor–Mentee Report

1. Introduction

The Mentor–Mentee system is an integral academic support mechanism of the Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering. The system is designed to provide continuous guidance, monitor student progress, identify academic difficulties at an early stage, and provide individual support for the overall development of students.

As part of the mentoring process, one faculty mentor is assigned a group of 15 students. The mentor maintains regular interaction with the mentees through a monthly meeting and individual one-to-one counselling sessions whenever required.

2. Objectives of the Mentor–Mentee System

- To monitor the academic progress and overall performance of each mentee.
- To identify academic difficulties, subject arrears and areas requiring improvement.
- To provide timely academic guidance and suggest suitable improvement strategies.
- To encourage students to maintain regular attendance and active participation in academic activities.
- To provide individual one-to-one counselling and understand student-specific concerns.
- To motivate students towards better academic performance and consistent effort.
- To provide personal motivation and support for confidence, discipline and positive learning behaviour.
- To establish continuous communication between mentor and mentee.

3. Mentor–Mentee Structure

Each mentor is assigned 15 mentees. The mentor serves as the primary point of contact for academic monitoring, counselling and motivation. The mentoring process combines group-level interaction with individual counselling so that both common and student-specific concerns can be addressed.

Component	Frequency / Coverage	Purpose
Mentor–Mentee Meeting	Monthly – once a month	Review academic status, attendance, concerns and progress
Individual Counselling	One-to-one, as required / during mentoring cycle	Understand individual academic and personal concerns
Academic Guidance	Continuous	Support subject improvement, arrears clearance and performance
Personal Motivation	Continuous	Build confidence, positive attitude and consistent effort

4. Monthly Mentor–Mentee Meeting

A mentor–mentee meeting is conducted once every month. During the meeting, the mentor reviews the academic and personal progress of the mentees, discusses concerns and provides appropriate guidance. Student attendance, subject performance and pending arrears are considered during academic review.

5. Individual One-to-One Counselling

Individual one-to-one counselling is provided to understand the specific needs of each student. The mentor interacts with the student individually, identifies difficulties and provides suitable academic or personal motivation. Confidential and supportive communication is encouraged so that students can discuss concerns freely.
